

NH Patient Care Procedures Matrix ADULT

| Airway Management            | 1 st Responder |       |                   |          |
|------------------------------|---------------------------|-------|-------------------|----------|
|                              |                           | EMT-B | EMT-I             | EMT-P    |
| BVM                          | X                         | X     | X                 | X        |
| Capnography                  |                           |       | ▲Prerequisite | X        |
| Chest Tube Maintenance       |                           |       |                   | Transfer |
| Cleared, Opened, Heimlich    | X                         | X     | X                 | X        |
| Combitube                    |                           | *     | *                 | *        |
| CPAP                         |                           |       |                   | *        |
| Digital Intubation           |                           |       |                   | X        |
| Endotracheal Suctioning      |                           |       | ▲Prerequisite | X        |
| KING LT-D                    |                           | *     | *                 | *        |
| Laryngeal Mask Airway        |                           |       | *                 | *        |
| McGill Forceps               |                           |       |                   | X        |
| Nasogastric Tube             |                           |       |                   | Transfer |
| Nasopharyngeal Airway        | X                         | X     | X                 | X        |
| Nasotracheal Intubation      |                           |       |                   | X        |
| Nebulizer Treatment          |                           |       | *                 | X        |
| Needle Cricothyrotomy        |                           |       |                   | *        |
| Needle Decompression         |                           |       |                   | X        |
| Oral Endotracheal Intubation |                           |       | ▲Prerequisite | X        |
| Oral Suctioning              | X                         | X     | X                 | X        |
| Oropharyngeal Airway         | X                         | X     | X                 | X        |

X Skill allowed under protocol and taught in the DOT curriculum.

* Skill allowed under protocol after completion of a NH Department Of Safety approved transition module, unless approved and trained under local option prior to 01/01/06.

▲ Skill allowed under protocol with waiver and approval from the NH Department of Safety.

New Hampshire Department of Safety
Division of Fire Standards and Training and Emergency Medical Services and
The New Hampshire Medical Control Board

| Oxygen Administration           | ▲                         | X                  | X                 | X                 |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------|-------------------|-------------------|
| Pulse Oximetry                  |                           | X                  | X                 | X                 |
| Rapid Sequence Intubation       |                           |                    |                   | ▲Prerequisite |
| Surgical Cricothyrotomy         |                           |                    |                   | *                 |
| Tracheostomy Maintenance        |                           | *                  | *                 | X                 |
| Ventilator Operation            |                           |                    |                   | Transfer          |
| Medication Administration Route | 1 st Responder | EMT-B              | EMT-I             | EMT-P             |
| Auto Injector                   |                           | X                  | X                 | X                 |
| Endotracheal                    |                           |                    | ▲Prerequisite | X                 |
| Inhalation                      |                           | O <sub>2</sub> MDI | *                 | X                 |
| Intramuscular                   |                           |                    | *                 | X                 |
| Intraosseous                    |                           |                    |                   | X                 |
| Intravenous                     |                           |                    | *                 | X                 |
| Intravenous Pump                |                           |                    |                   | X                 |
| Oral                            |                           | X                  | X                 | X                 |
| PiggyBack                       |                           |                    |                   | X                 |
| Rectal                          |                           |                    |                   | X                 |
| Subcutaneous                    |                           |                    | *                 | X                 |
| Sublingual                      |                           | Assist             | Assist            | X                 |
| Vascular Access                 | 1 st Responder | EMT-B              | EMT-I             | EMT-P             |
| Blood Draw                      |                           |                    | X                 | X                 |
| Blood Glucose Analysis          |                           | *                  | *                 | X                 |

X Skill allowed under protocol and taught in the DOT curriculum.

* Skill allowed under protocol after completion of a NH Department Of Safety approved transition module, unless approved and trained under local option prior to 01/01/06.

▲ Skill allowed under protocol with waiver and approval from the NH Department of Safety.

New Hampshire Department of Safety
Division of Fire Standards and Training and Emergency Medical Services and
The New Hampshire Medical Control Board

| Central Line Maintenance            |                                 |              |                                 | Transfer     |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------|--------------|---------------------------------|--------------|
| Peripheral Venous Access            |                                 |              | X                               | X            |
| Intraosseous - Adult                |                                 |              |                                 | X            |
| Cardiac Management           | 1st Responder | EMT-B | EMT-I                    | EMT-P |
| Application of 12 Lead ECG          |                                 | *            | *                               | X            |
| Application of 3 or 4 lead ECG      |                                 | *            | *                               | X            |
| CPR - Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation | X                               | X            | X                               | X            |
| Defibrillation - AED                | X                               | X            | X                               | X            |
| Defibrillation - Manual             |                                 |              | *                               | X            |
| Interpretation of 12 Lead ECG       |                                 |              |                                 | X            |
| Interpretation of 3 or 4 lead       |                                 |              | Vfib/VtachAsystole,PEA* | X            |
| Synchronized Cardioversion          |                                 |              |                                 | X            |
| Transcutaneous Pacing               |                                 |              |                                 | X            |
|                                     |                                 |              |                                 |              |

X Skill allowed under protocol and taught in the DOT curriculum.

* Skill allowed under protocol after completion of a NH Department Of Safety approved transition module, unless approved and trained under local option prior to 01/01/06.

▲ Skill allowed under protocol with waiver and approval from the NH Department of Safety.

New Hampshire Department of Safety
Division of Fire Standards and Training and Emergency Medical Services and
The New Hampshire Medical Control Board

NH Patient Care Procedures Matrix PEDIATRIC

| Airway Management     | 1stResponder | EMT-B | EMT-I | EMT-P |
|------------------------------|-------------------------------------|--------------|--------------|--------------|
| BVM                          | X                                   | X            | X            | X            |
| Capnography                  |                                     |              |              | X            |
| Cleared, Opened, Heimlich    | X                                   | X            | X            | X            |
| Digital Intubation           |                                     |              |              | X            |
| Endotracheal Suctioning      |                                     |              |              | X            |
| King LT-D                    |                                     |              |              | *            |
| Laryngeal Mask Airway        |                                     |              |              | *            |
| McGill Forceps               |                                     |              |              | X            |
| Nasogastric Tube             |                                     |              |              | Transfer     |
| Nasopharyngeal Airway        | X                                   | X            | X            | X            |
| Nebulizer Treatment          |                                     |              |              | X            |
| Needle Cricothyrotomy        |                                     |              |              | *            |
| Needle Decompression         |                                     |              |              | X            |
| Oral Endotracheal Intubation |                                     |              |              | X            |
| Oral Suctioning              | X                                   | X            | X            | X            |
| Oropharyngeal Airway         | X                                   | X            | X            | X            |
| Oxygen Administration        | ▲                                   | X            | X            | X            |
| Pulse Oximetry               |                                     | X            | X            | X            |
| Tracheostomy Maintenance     |                                     | *            | *            | X            |
| Ventilator Operation         |                                     |              |              | Transfer     |

X Skill allowed under protocol and taught in the DOT curriculum.

* Skill allowed under protocol after completion of a NH Department Of Safety approved transition module, unless approved and trained under local option prior to 01/01/06.

▲ Skill allowed under protocol with waiver and approval from the NH Department of Safety.

New Hampshire Department of Safety
Division of Fire Standards and Training and Emergency Medical Services and
The New Hampshire Medical Control Board

| Medication Administration Route | 1st Responder | EMT-B       | EMT-I       | EMT-P |
|----------------------------------------|---------------------------------|--------------------|--------------------|--------------|
| Auto Injector                          |                                 | X                  | X                  | X            |
| Endotracheal                           |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Inhalation                             |                                 | O <sub>2</sub> MDI | O <sub>2</sub> MDI | X            |
| Intramuscular                          |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Intraosseous                           |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Intravenous                            |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Intravenous Pump                       |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Oral                                   |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| PiggyBack                              |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Rectal                                 |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Subcutaneous                           |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Vascular Access                 | 1st Responder | EMT-B       | EMT-I       | EMT-P |
| Blood Draw                             |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Blood Glucose Analysis                 |                                 | *                  | *                  | X            |
| Intraosseous                           |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Peripheral Venous Access               |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Umbilical Vein Access                  |                                 |                    |                    | X            |
| Cardiac Management              | 1st Responder | EMT-B       | EMT-I       | EMT-P |
| Application of 12 Lead ECG             |                                 | *                  | *                  | X            |
| Application of 3 or 4 Lead ECG         |                                 | *                  | *                  | X            |
| CPR - Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation    | X                               | X                  | X                  | X            |

X Skill allowed under protocol and taught in the DOT curriculum.

* Skill allowed under protocol after completion of a NH Department Of Safety approved transition module, unless approved and trained under local option prior to 01/01/06.

▲ Skill allowed under protocol with waiver and approval from the NH Department of Safety.

New Hampshire Department of Safety
Division of Fire Standards and Training and Emergency Medical Services and
The New Hampshire Medical Control Board

|                               |   |   |   |   |
|-------------------------------|---|---|---|---|
| Defibrillation - AED          | X | X | X | X |
| Defibrillation - Manual       |   |   |   | X |
| Interpretation of 12 Lead ECG |   |   |   | X |
| Interpretation of 3 or 4 lead |   |   |   | X |
| Synchronized Cardioversion    |   |   |   | X |
| Transcutaneous Pacing         |   |   |   | X |

X Skill allowed under protocol and taught in the DOT curriculum.

* Skill allowed under protocol after completion of a NH Department Of Safety approved transition module, unless approved and trained under local option prior to 01/01/06.

▲ Skill allowed under protocol with waiver and approval from the NH Department of Safety.

New Hampshire Department of Safety
Division of Fire Standards and Training and Emergency Medical Services and
The New Hampshire Medical Control Board

NH Patient Care Procedures ADULT & PEDIATRIC

| OTHER SKILLS                                  | 1 stResponder | EMT-B | EMT-I | EMT-P |
|-----------------------------------------------|------------------------------|-------|-------|-------|
| Advanced Spinal Assessment                    |                              | X     | X     | X     |
| Burn Care                                     | X                            | X     | X     | X     |
| Cervical Spinal Immobilization                | ▲                            | X     | X     | X     |
| Childbirth                                    | X                            | X     | X     | X     |
| Cold Pack                                     | X                            | X     | X     | X     |
| Extrication                                   |                              | X     | X     | X     |
| Eye Irrigation (Morgan Lens)                  |                              |       |       | X     |
| Hot Pack                                      | X                            | X     | X     | X     |
| Immunization                                  |                              |       |       | *     |
| MAST                                          |                              | X     | X     | X     |
| Restraints - Pharmacological                  |                              |       |       | X     |
| Restraints - Physical                         |                              | X     | X     | X     |
| Spinal Immobilization - Lying(Long board) | ▲                            | X     | X     | X     |
| Spinal Immobilization - Seated(K.E.D.)    | ▲                            | X     | X     | X     |
| Spinal Immobilization - Standing              | ▲                            | X     | X     | X     |
| Splinting                                     | ▲                            | X     | X     | X     |
| Splinting - Traction                          | ▲                            | X     | X     | X     |
| Stroke Scale                                  |                              | X     | X     | X     |
| Temperature                                   |                              | X     | X     | X     |
| Wound Care - Occlusive Dressing               | X                            | X     | X     | X     |

X Skill allowed under protocol and taught in the DOT curriculum.

* Skill allowed under protocol after completion of a NH Department Of Safety approved transition module, unless approved and trained under local option prior to 01/01/06.

▲ Skill allowed under protocol with waiver and approval from the NH Department of Safety.

New Hampshire Department of Safety
Division of Fire Standards and Training and Emergency Medical Services and
The New Hampshire Medical Control Board

|                             |   |   |   |   |
|-----------------------------|---|---|---|---|
| Wound Care Pressure Bandage | X | X | X | X |
| Vital Signs                 | ▲ | X | X | X |

X Skill allowed under protocol and taught in the DOT curriculum.

* Skill allowed under protocol after completion of a NH Department Of Safety approved transition module, unless approved and trained under local option prior to 01/01/06.

▲ Skill allowed under protocol with waiver and approval from the NH Department of Safety.

New Hampshire Department of Safety
Division of Fire Standards and Training and Emergency Medical Services and
The New Hampshire Medical Control Board